

“The clean and tidy kitchen makes me feel content because it is a nice place to be able to work”

“The dog is sleeping peacefully on the blanket and it makes me feel content”

“The image of the cookie and the cup of coffee makes me feel content because I love coffee and this looks like a nice breakfast”

“The old photo of a roller coaster makes me feel excited and nostalgic for my childhood”

“The broken down and dirty bathroom makes me feel disgusted”

“The dog is snarling and looks like it is about to attack someone”

“The food looks gross and I would not want to eat it”

“The black and white photo of the person in the photo is very dark and depressing”